

THE ARKA GROUP

The ARKA group is a collaboration between Ben Jeans Houghton & Matthew de Kersaint Giraudeau, producing films, sculptures and sound works about the stranger fringes of scientific and philosophical thought. The ARKA group collaborates with emphatic individuals from various disciplines and institutions relevant to the subject of each new work.

SELECTED GROUP AND SOLO EXHIBITIONS

- 2015 Votives (forthcoming), Space In Between, London
- 2014 On Between, as part of Invites at Zabłudowicz Collection, London
The mud formed a finger, pointed, Space In Between (off-site at Sutton House), London
- Beginnings, Whitstable Biennale, curated by Kate Phillimore and Emma Leach, Whitstable, Kent
- The Ocelli, screened as part of Art Projects Film Programme, curated by Pryle Bergmann, at the London Art Fair
- 2012 Beginnings, part of Joint Ventures, Space In Between (off-site at Oval Space), London
- The Ocelli, Space In Between, London
- The Ocelli, at CIRCA Screen, Sunderland
- 2010 On Arka; Moving Gallery, Newcastle-upon-Tyne
- Buckminster Fullerene Dream, Space In Between, London

SELECTED AWARDS

- 2015 Grants for the Arts, Research & Development funding from Arts Council England
- 2012 IDEAS TAP funding, £5000 Short Film Funding to support an experimental short film
- 2011 Cornerhouse Commission to create a film for Cornerhouse Gallery, Manchester